Route '66

The road lies dim in
The misty dawn—
Time for us to be hovin' along
To scratch our itch on the World's rough brawn.
We'll get our kicks
On Route 66!

[redacted]

Dear Steve,
You're one of the cutest + sweetest guys I've met this year at Sherwood. Don't forget our little experience with Dale". I don't think I ever will. Come + see me during the summer. I'll see you at any way. Try to be. Have yourself and not brats too many girl's hearts
Love you,
Heidi
'66

day in my whole life the day Barb & Ronnie made you ask me out and I couldn't go!!! Everybody hated me that day including me! Oh Well

I hope your not still mad. I'll never forget Johnny's Statue in art. The finger finally broke off!! I remember the song you and Ronnie sang to me when you kidnapped me out of art (the one about my navel). That was funny you tell Ronnie that he's the one who got me in trouble in the Health room and not the other way around. Good luck to one of the nicest kids (boys) in the Senior Class. I wish you all the happiness in the world. Be careful on your (or Ronnies) Honda and don't go and get yourself fallen off of any towers!! (Have fun with Barbara) Be a good Boy!

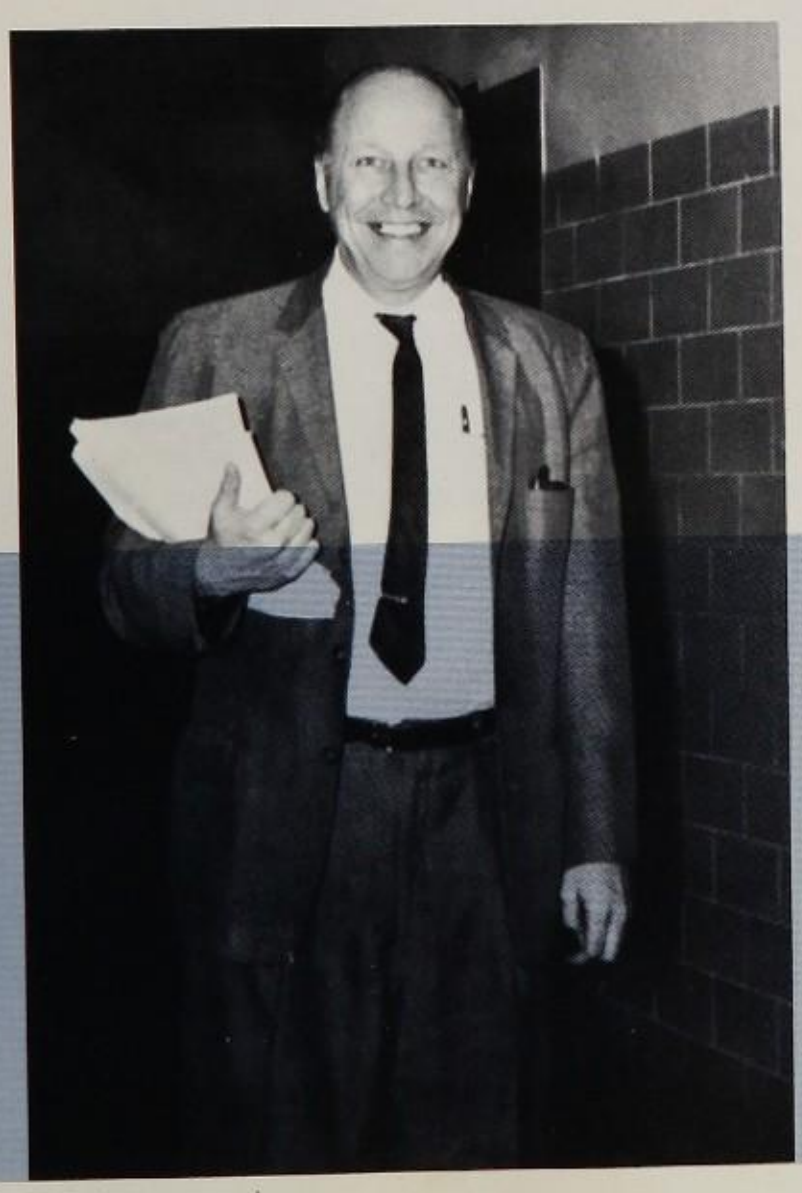
The Dramatic World of Richard Ertzman

Richard Ertzman,

exalted smoke warden of the 240 wing john; eternal performer whose hamminess has prolonged infinite faculty meetings beyond the stretch of doom; austere father demi-god of the nether stage regions; barking patroler of the tiled halls, eternally searching for the shirt-tail detrousered or the lovers tenderly entwined; tireless giver of life's bright days to that ungrateful witch, Sherwood, your wife, mother, all; fussy caviler of the truculent tongue lacerating smug department chairman; uncompromising Jeremiah whom we trust to guard the integrity we've lost;—

we call these as evidence of your humanity for which we honor you.



To the Seniors:

You will soon be leaving Sherwood to enter a world beset by many problems: war, starvation, poverty, disease and the ever present possibility of atomic destruction. In such a world you may think that we are facing crises so grave that it is foolish to strive for anything of permanent value; however, our scientific knowledge and technical know-how are expanding rapidly and we seem to be on the verge of being able to gain the knowledge to solve many of the world's most pressing problems.

It is up to your generation to move forward with courage and confidence in the possibilities of the new expanding horizons before you. Knowledge can be acquired; faith is born in you; courage comes from the two together. Equipped with these three—knowledge, faith and courage—you should see the future as a time of inspiring challenge.

Kids are running in the halls; Kids are writing on the walls; Kids are always skipping classes, getting caught not having passes; Kids are smoking in the bathroom. There's no teacher in the mathroom; The cafeteria's one great mob. Mayhem? No, it's just our job!

Our Swedish Doll

I am from Sweden and the little town of Katrineholm. Thanks to the Martins, Dr. Pitt and my parents, I have been able to spend this wonderful year at Sherwood. I am enjoying my visit in the United States very much. I don't regret one thing that I have done so far, and I have many days left before my parents and by three brothers will see me again. I will always remember this year and all the wonderful things here at Sherwood.

Docka Olsson

Docka means doll in Swedish. Ain't she?

England. Land of white cliffs, rolling hills, fertile plains.
England. Lake Ullsworth, on the banks of which Wordsworth saw the "Host of golden daffodils". Quiet villages nestled in hidden glens. Mist-shrouded moors. Roman Ruins. Majestic castles.
England. Historical antiquity. Scots Guards, resplendent in red coats and black bearskin hats. Trooping the Color. Pageantry-loving England.
England. Parliament looking out on the Thames River.
Timless splendor.
England. New suburban housing developments. Factories. World banker. World trader.
England. Kindly, reserved people. Civilized people. My England! Theresa Cole

You know I like Steve alot,
With this brew, him I'll kill,
Because he loves another still.

A friend of mine said this cute?

ROUTE 66

Steve,
There's a whole lot I'd like to say to you but ... no space, since I never ever talk in school. It's been nice, real nice, knowing you, I'm sorry it's ending. I finally figured out that concerns both you and I.

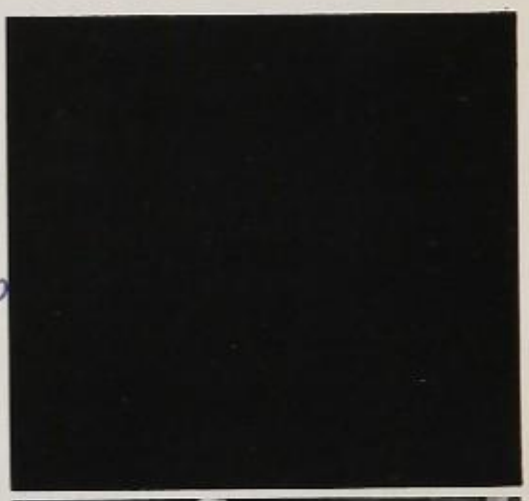
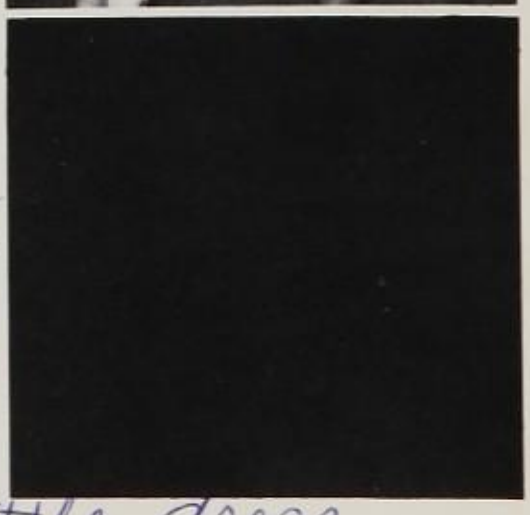
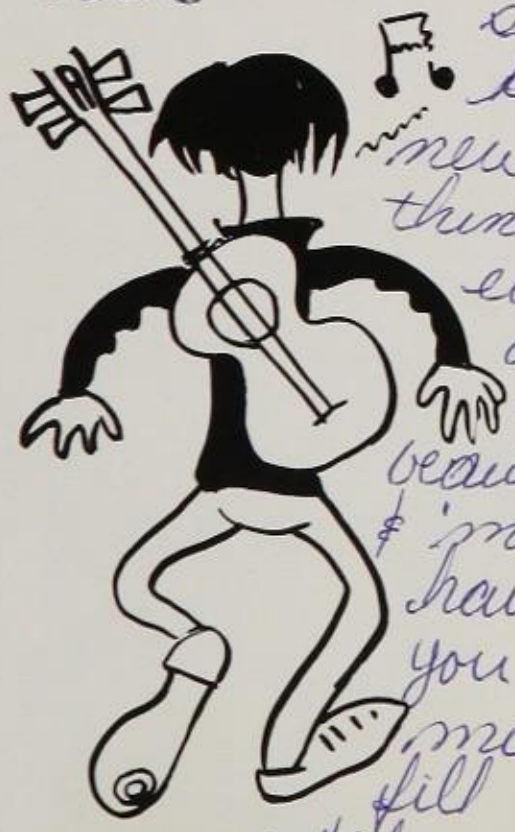
Organizations

"I haven't got what it takes to get what I want!" Funny huh? If I had it, I'd have you by now! I enjoyed your memory, (if it pertains to me), it really means alot! Sometimes I wish I didn't have a oli' man so you could come over without being scared! You know my new number (I think) so if you ever get lonely over the summer and all the beautiful, talented, & 'mature' girls have deserted you, come on over, maybe I can fill in for a short while.







I never did think a simple little dress was worth an "enchanting evening

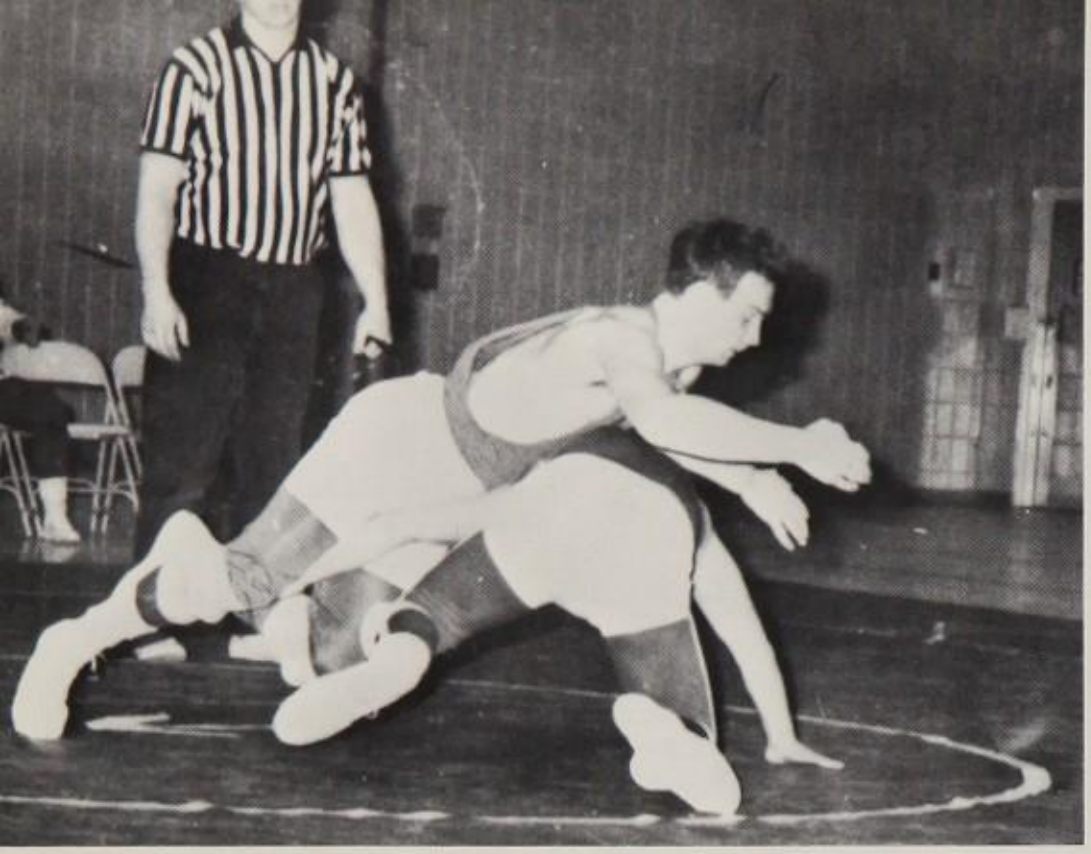
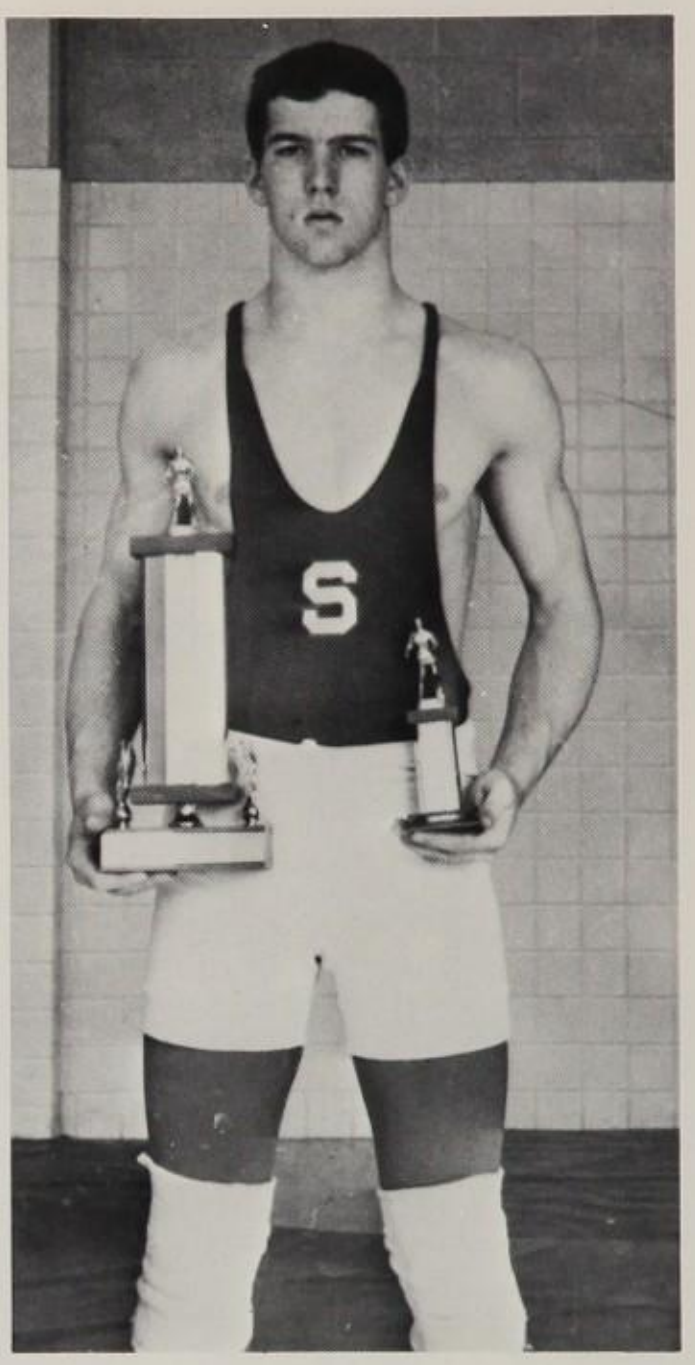
The Hammond twins relax and let Coach Crutchfield worry





Wrestling has made it big both at Sherwood and in Montgomery County. This year we boast two obvious indicators of this condition: Larry Musgrove, 180 pound County Champion and doubled attendance at wrestling meets. At the County tournament, in addition to winner Musgrove, Sherwood's Wickie Lyons took a second and Hal Ammann a third as the Sherwood team placed fifth of 14 teams.

It's big and it's different
And terribly new
And most upperclassmen
Are bigger than you.
The courses are different;
The halls teeming masses;
And once every hour
Your world changes classes.

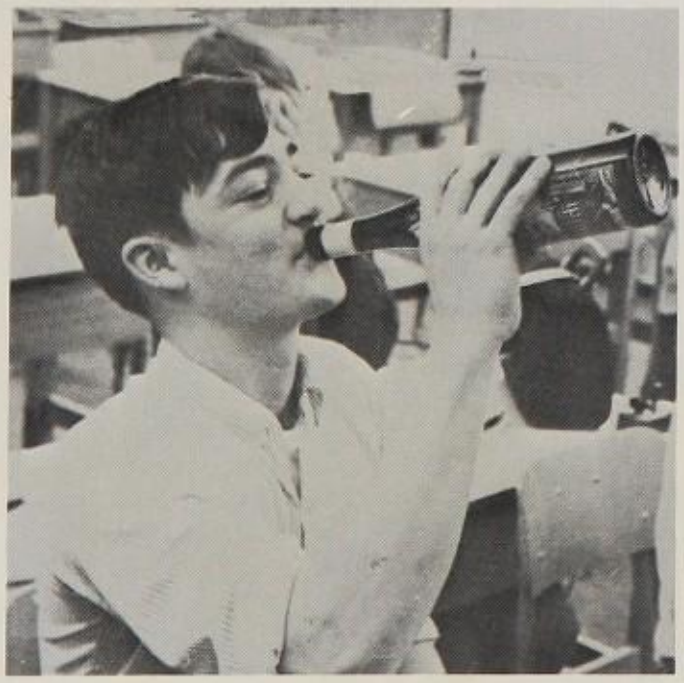
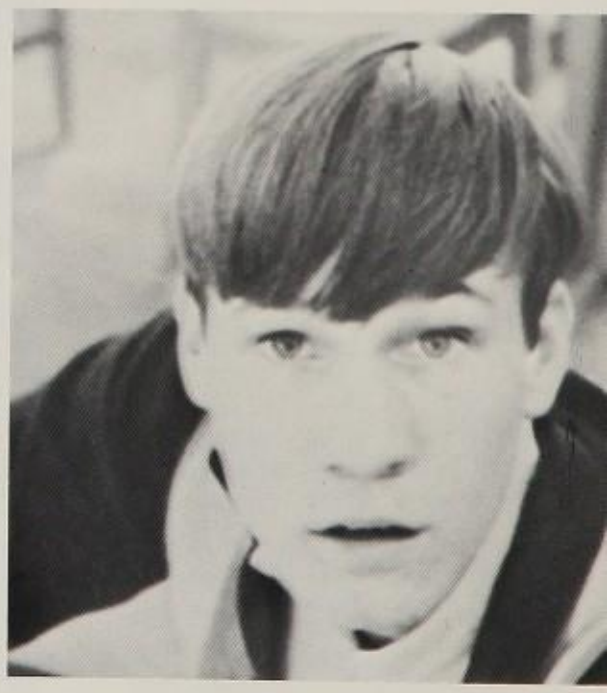
Faces along the route!





Dear -
I can honestly say it's been a pleasure to meet such a nice guy! I'll never regret going out with you. Thanks for introducing me to "Mr. Bear" and the "Big A." I hope we will always be good friends in the years to come. I shall never forget all the good times you showed me.
Take care -
Love ya,
Lou

are the oldest swagger a little more take courses like psychology and are the birds on the top of the tree.
have privileges
hold more offices
sit in the front row
at assemblies
and can tell you about the class of '61
(they remember)
have waited for six years
to get to wear shorts for one day
are supposed to know what they want to do
And feel pretty good about it all.

Afterword

The road stretches back like a cat
in the sun;
the same at the end
as when you've begun—
and yet now you're taller
they call you a man.
You're next to your future
and they say that you can begin to live.
And yet you remember
six different Septembers
with football and classes
and funny small things
and your turn once again
and face a new world
with the six year old feeling a brand new road brings.

Dearest Stevie-Poo,

Well, dall this year is finally finished. Its funny Stevie - as close as we've been, we've never been out together. Maybe we can remedy that. You're a really sweet guy with everything going for you: looks, smarts, personality and just hung jan. Work hard Stevie and you'll go places.

Hope you have much luck in the future and I hope you make it to heaven!

Drop by anytime this summer - (when you have a chance.)

Never forget all of Hubby's classes, my classic back hand swing during the flag salute, Uncle John's passion class + you + Rich stuffing the in that T-I-N-Y cramped locker!

Love ya,
JoAnne

P.S. Don't let graduation be good-bye -

SKEUZ - BUT I'LL BE MISSING YOU. HOPE TO SEE YOU AROUND THIS SUMMER. JUST REMEMBER TO STAY AWAY FROM WOMEN AND YOU WILL BE ALRIGHT IF NOT A LITTLE ODD.

Jo Stanyon
